I. COMPRENSIÓN DE UN TEXTO:

PIRATES

Pirates travelled at sea for very long periods. Sometimes they didn't do much, they just waited for a ship to attack. In 1600 life was difficult on a ship. Pirates didn't eat well, they only had biscuits to eat. They often died at sea because of the terrible conditions.

When the pirates finally attacked a ship, they put up the special flag called the Jolly Roger. But they also used a red flag. When they used the red flag the pirates didn't take any prisoners because they killed everyone.

Long John Silver was the typical pirate with only one eye. To discover their position at sea, captains looked directly at the sun with a special instrument like a telescope. They did this every day.

As a result they often lost the use of an eye!.
